

On February 19 & 20, 2016 men and women came together to plunge into the icy waters of Lake Michigan twenty-four times in twenty-four hours. While the water was cold, their hearts were warmed By the camaraderie of the group and the success of their mission. They raised over $140,000.

The mission for Special Olympics is to provide year-round sports training and athletic competition in a variety of Olympic-type sports for children and adults with intellectual disabilities.

The Chief of Police, Robert A. Copley participated in this humbling effort to raise money and awareness, for Special Olympic Athletes. With some very generous supporters, the Chief was able to raise over $2700.00. Way to go Chief!
