

QUINCY POLICE DEPARTMENT
EMPLOYEE OF THE MONTH
MAY 1, 2019

May 1, 2019

To Whom It May Concern,

It is with great pleasure that I announce Officer Chad Logsdon has been selected as Employee of the Month for May 2019.

Officer Logsdon joined the department on August 12, 2002. He graduated from Police Basic Training on November 7, 2002. He has been selected as Employee of the Month on seven other occasions and was the Employee of the Year for 2008.

Officer Logsdon was nominated due to his dedication to the community and to the Quincy Police Department. He has shown this dedication by not only doing a great job on the street, but also by his taking on multiple duties above and beyond his normal responsibilities as a Patrol Officer. Officer Logsdon is currently a Field Training Officer, a Crisis Intervention Team member, a Peer Support Team member, a Crisis Negotiator, a Rapid Response Instructor, a Juvenile Officer, a Firearms Instructor, and an ITOA Master Tactical Patrol Officer. Through these positions, Officer Logsdon has help mold many new officers, and has made a positive impact in the community. He works and trains many extra hours beyond his normal shift. As a Field Training Officer, Officer Logsdon has stepped up and continuously trained new officers back to back.

Officer Logsdon maintains a positive attitude and is willing to assist other officers whenever needed. He is looked to by many as a leader and mentor. Officer Logsdon works his cases thoroughly and closes many cases by conducting follow up and thinking outside of the box. He is a valuable asset to this department and any squad he works with.

Please join me in congratulating Officer Logsdon for being selected as Quincy Police Department May 2019 Employee of the Month.

Robert A. Copley, Chief of Police
