Awards / Accomplishments / Promotions / Appointments
May 2019 Employee of the Month

Officer Chad Logsdon

Officer Logsdon was nominated due to his dedication to the community and to the Quincy Police Department. Officer Logsdon has shown his dedication to the community and QPD by taking on multiple duties above and beyond his normal job. He currently acts as a Field Training Officer, a Crisis Intervention Team officer, a member of the Peer Support Team, a Crisis Negotiator, a Rapid Response Instructor, a Juvenile Officer, a Firearms Instructor, and an ITOA Master Tactical Patrol Officer. Officer Logsdon maintains a positive attitude and is willing to assist other officers whenever needed. With these positions he works many extra hours. Officer Logsdon has stepped up and continuously trained new officers back to back. He is looked to by many as a leader and mentor. Officer Logsdon works his cases thoroughly and closes many cases by conducting follow up and thinking outside of the box. He is a valuable asset to this department and any squad he works with.
